Catherine Stienstra Director and Senior Manager

Catherine Stienstra is a director and senior portfolio manager for municipal fixed-income at Columbia Management Investment Advisers, LLC. Ms. Stienstra manages the long state municipal bond strategies as well as the AMT-free tax exempt strategy. She joined the firm in 2007 as sector leader for the municipal bond team and has been a member of the investment community since 1988.

Prior to joining Columbia Management, Ms. Stienstra was a portfolio manager with FAF Advisors, Inc. (formerly U.S. Bancorp Asset Management) where she was responsible for three state-specific mutual funds and a national short-term municipal fund. During her 17-year tenure with FAF Advisors she was instrumental in developing a tax-exempt custom cash product and led development and marketing efforts for new products as the portfolio manager. Her experience also includes managing the tax-exempt fixed income trading operations at FAF.

Ms. Stienstra earned a B.A. in international studies from the University of Nebraska. She is a member of the Minnesota Municipal Society of Analysts. In addition, she serves as vice chair on a non-profit board for the African Resources Center.
